School Treasurer, for the District of Makawala, Island of Maui, in place of Mr. P. N. N. N. By order of the NOTES OF THE WEEK.

MASONIC.—There will be a meeting of Hawaiian Lodge, No. 21, F. & A. M., at its rooms on Monday evening next, at 7 o'clock. "Instruction." THE gentleman who signed "N. N. N. N." to the Challenger subscription paper, is requested to communicate with W. A. Markham or C. P. Ward.
OLD SAILS.—With no particular reference to ships or the sea—is the title heretofore to be applied to the jury now incubating in the Court House.
LUMBER.—The man accused of the murder of Ezekiel in Puna, Hawaii, was brought down from the Kilauea this morning, to be held for trial.
LAUNCH.—Last Wednesday at 11 A. M., the new coasting schooner built by Tibbitts & Son, was successfully launched from their shipyard, and named the Amelia Morris.
ALMOST ANOTHER FIRE.—In the excitement of leaving his house to run to the fire last Wednesday evening, one of our citizens upon his kerosene lamp, and so was detained to prevent a conflagration on his own premises.
RAIN ALL AROUND.—During the past week at almost any hour of the day, rain could be seen falling all around the city and plentifully to the seaward, and not a drop for Honolulu—until Thursday night and early Friday morning, when several smart showers fell, the avant couriers of the coming rainy season.
NOY EXTRAORDINARY.—Last year at about this time, the Comet, the Emma and the D. C. Murray, were each over fifty days on the round trip to San Francisco. The latter vessel is absent fifty-two days to-day, which is not extraordinary considering the season.
A MENAGERIE WANTED.—An enterprising merchant on Queen street advertises for a live lion, a tiger, a leopard, and other wild beasts. He already has one lion and a unicorn, but evidently wants a menagerie. What a rush there will be when the lionine family arrives!
MUSIC THIS AFTERNOON.—The Band will play at Emma Square, commencing at 4 o'clock. Following is the programme, to conclude with a march around the square:
